GIANNI is a classic lamp with visible influences of industrial design, which complements interiors decorated in Scandinavian and modern styles. It is a stylish element that is eye-catching but not overwhelming.

The variant with a white lampshade and a brushed steel mount can be used in any room. The lamp is suspended on an adjustable cord. This solution is especially appreciated by owners of rather low interiors. GIANNI with a 32 cm diameter lampshade is also the favourite of owners of shops and restaurants.

The lamp uses the most popular socket on the market - E27, to easily adjust the light source. The classic, conical shape allows the use of the lamp in any room - dining room, kitchen, living room, and even in restaurants, cafes, and shops;
